Adjustable overflows maintain the maximum level of water inside the basin or fountain of the architectural water feature; they can be set to adjust the water to the desired height, which can either be between 30 and 50 cm or 50 and 90 cm. Optional 2” basin drain so that the overflow can be dismantled if the water fountain needs to be emptied.

Further information at www.saferain.com | Más información en www.saferain.com